

NORRO LOVET!

Fostering and boosting a culture of gaming among children

Focusing on gaming, creativity, community, nerdiness and having fun!

Kids get to use their minds to innovate in creative processes outside the realm of typical sponsored activities for children.

NÖRDLOVET is a day-long event where we offer children:

- Workshops to try out new activities
 - Roleplaying, drawing, animation, miniature painting, etc
- Activities for relaxing and socializing
 - Board games, motion activated games, clay sculpting, painting, etc
- A safe haven for children to express their nerdy interests
 - Not typically found or available at community centers
- Game Jams to experience the fun of idea creativity
 - Using digital tools to nurture gaming innovation

A long-awaited event

Big interest amongst leaders and businesses

TEKNIKERJAKTEN

A long-awaited event

Approximately 300 visitors to our first two NÖRDLOV

"It's great that my character has high charisma, that way I can disregard my autism for a while"

"I'm a nerd!"

"We've been looking for something like this for our daughter"

"My son really needed something like this"

"Is there a club we can join?"

"I wish this kind of thing existed when I was a kid"

"I want to start painting miniatures!"

We offer children a community, and help them to discover new interests not available elsewhere

Five NÖRDLOV per year

Every child should have access to something they want to do during holidays – together with others
